ACCEPTABLE USE POLICY

Middle and Secondary Schools, Grades 6-12

The Diocese of Arlington administrators, faculty and staff have the right to restrict student computer activities at any time if, in their judgment, a student is not following the spirit of the Diocese of Arlington Acceptable Use Policy. Students at Diocesan schools are prohibited from using computers for any of the following activities: (This list is not meant to be all-inclusive.)

1. Internet access for private use or commercial business.
2. Violate any local, state, federal or international laws that apply to computer or Internet use, including but not limited to copyright infringement, plagiarism, software licensing, harassment, slander and obscenity.
3. Access, produce, transmit and/or retransmit material advocating or promoting violence or hatred against individuals or groups, promoting destruction of property or containing sexually oriented material.
4. Hack, infiltrate or 'sniff' school or outside computers' accounts, or networks, or attempt to establish or establish contact into school-restricted computer nets or any other unauthorized databases. Users will not access, transmit, and/or retransmit material requiring a password or security authorization without legally possessing such password or authorization.
5. Commit or attempt to commit any willful act which disrupts the operation or any school, outside computer or network. For example, users will not release viruses, worms, spam, e-mail bombs, or other files that cause a disk to fill up, a network to bog down or a software application to crash.
6. For games, non-academic surfing and chatting, gambling, non-academic multimedia listening or viewing.
7. Send, store, or intentionally receive inappropriate or frivolous e-mail. All electronic communication must be polite, respectful and contain no obscene, vulgar, degrading or defamatory language.
8. Use or include the school's e-mail address in non-school web pages.
9. Use encryption software from any access point within the Diocese of Arlington.
10. Bring computers from home into school. Computer/network/Internet access during school hours will be restricted to school owned equipment only.
11. Use school computers to enter chat rooms or for online messaging.
12. Downloading and/or installing software is prohibited. This includes copyrighted software, shareware and freeware.
13. Use of any school equipment to duplicate any bootleg software is strictly prohibited.
14. Modify school computers, including additions, deletions and changes of software, settings preference, properties, or account customization is strictly prohibited.

I understand any violation of the above provisions will result in the loss of my user account and may result in further disciplinary and/or legal action, including but not limited to suspension or expulsion, or referral to legal authorities. I therefore agree to maintain acceptable standards and to report any misuse of the system to the appropriate teacher or administrator.

I further understand that I am responsible for my actions, regardless of when or where they occur, when those actions negatively impact the school's image, reputation, and/or the safety and well-being of the school community. This includes inappropriate behavior in cyberspace including, but not limited to, sexting or cyber bullying, messages, chat room commentary, comments/pictures, postings on social networking sites, blogs, wikis, gaming chats, digital transmissions and other technology related activity. Misuse or violation of this agreement comes in many forms, but can be viewed as any messages, information or graphics sent or received that include/suggest pornography, unethical or illegal solicitation, racism, sexism, inappropriate language and/or other listing previously described in this user agreement.

I agree to report any misuse of the electronic information resources to the appropriate teacher or administrator.

I have read this Acceptable Use Policy and understand that Internet sites are filtered and that Internet use on any school computer may be monitored. I hereby agree to comply with the above described conditions, in addition to those outlined in the Elementary Parent/Student Handbook 2020/2021, of acceptable use.
